

Next Generation Logistics, Inc. Named Top 50 3PL Provider

Where Services and Technology Meet

Inverness, IL (Vocus) September 29, 2008 -- Next Generation Logistics, Inc., a leading provider of managed freight services, TMS software, and supply chain consulting announced today it is named to the Food Logistics Top 50 3PL providers. The Top 50 3PL is a listing of third-party logistics providers that are helping food, beverage and CPG companies gain a competitive logistical advantage. Food Logistics goal with the Top 50 3PL listing is to highlight a broad range of 3PL services targeted at the food industry, addressing the needs of companies of varying sizes that make up the food supply chain.

“Next Generation Logistics, Inc. has successfully managed to provide a unique blend of services and TMS software, leveraging our expertise with sophisticated technology to ensure our clients freight spend remains low and service levels high,” said Paul Pultorak, Vice President, Supply Chain Operations. “Our services plus software model enables clients to have better visibility and access to detailed information that they ordinarily wouldn’t have in house, we’re extremely honored to have this recognition” says Pultorak.
