The Launch of Love Life and Beyond Celebrates The Journey of Life and the Tender Subject of Dying

http://LoveLifeandBeyond.com is designed as a forum for expression, exploration and examination in order to shed some light on a subject that traditionally carries so much darkness and sense of loss.

(PRWEB) September 21, 2017 -- We are pleased to announce the creation of a new blog-site, www.lovellifeandbeyond.com, born out of a compelling desire to bring up the tender subject of death and dying in a conscious and positive way, allowing space for others to contribute their experiences and knowledge and shed some light on a subject that traditionally carries so much darkness and sense of loss.

LoveLifeandBeyond.com is designed as a forum and friendly place for expression, exploration and examination, a place where a person can feel safe in exploring the notions of death and dying, find answers to the questions about caring for a loved one who is dying, and how to handle death from a caregivers perspective.

Dive into lovelifeandbeyond.com and explore. We believe this site will offer various ways to handle the life to dying/death journey with grace, love, honor, dignity and regard. There is some humor sprinkled throughout as well. Life is funny and this is a celebration. We will also include articles from other contributors as well as personal stories from readers throughout the world.

Thank you so much.

Many blessings,
Shelley Whizin

It's your life. Enjoy the journey. And, remember to bring love into everything you do.
