SWELL Systems, Inc Announces the Release of SWELLEnterprise; An All-in-one Business Suite for Agencies and Small Businesses

SWELL Systems Incorporated releases SWELLEnterprise; An all-in-one business suite of tools for agencies to consolidate customer relations, client files, project management, and email marketing applications and more into one seamless experience at a fraction of the cost.

Wilmington, North Carolina (PRWEB) September 15, 2017 -- Wilmington, North Carolina: SWELLEnterprise is the first product to launch from software company SWELL Systems, Incorporated. SWELLEnterprise sets out to streamline the agency process and workflows by providing the market with an all-in-one suite of tools; eliminating the need for multiple applications and subscriptions. Managing customer relations, multiple members of a team, task lists all within one system is only a small portion of what SWELLEnterprise can offer. As the agency grows, SWELL grows with it, helping users to optimize their productivity and allowing the agency to make informed decisions that will boost their bottom line.

SWELLEnterprise allows its’ users to consolidate their workflows within one application at a fraction of the cost. With a fully customizable dashboard, a user can choose from a multitude of features including, but not limited to, invoicing, email marketing and integration, project and file management, the list goes on.

Unlimited features and data without additional pricing for our premium accounts. Cloud based application, ensuring businesses access to all the tools they need from their smartphone, tablet, laptop, or desktop.
SWELLEnterprise can connect to Alexa, Google Assistant and the Internet of Things (IoT).
SWELLEnterprise was built by an agency for agencies.

“Right now I use so many different software applications; Insightly to manage customers and sales, Asana for project management, email marketing and more… SWELL combines all this into one software and is cheaper than just one of them!” - Mike Hepburn, President at YourSocialStrategy.com

"Pretty great app! We currently use PipeDrive for sales CRM and have separate apps for everything…. going between 5-6 apps every day is not effective." Johnny Eaker - Cosmic Sauce Agency

“As a small business owner, I was looking for a CRM that worked for my new business but would also scale with it as it grew,” said Schmidt. “That’s why SWELLEnterprise works for businesses of all sizes. It’s scalable from inception to acquisition.”
