Shaolin Institute will introduce each of us to meditate at the Blueridge mountain top where we see emptiness and space of nothingness in connection with pure consciousness in N dimension of energy waves in resonance with the universe consciousness," said Mr. Mansor, Shaolin Institute instructor, "from that pure Zen transcendence," continues the instructor, "we shall see beyond three dimensions of physical being - invisible Qi of conscious reality of the cosmos to which we are all part."

It is also beneficial for those who wish to tap into the fountain of youth in inner Qi plain-field in energy vibration of that sound frequency in resonance with that of the universe, Ms. Feng, the manager of the event explained.

The Zen Master insisted that his job is to lead and guide each individual to reconnect from the entrance of zero point of Zen - empty space to infinite intelligence of superior consciousness of great potentiality.

The retreat seizes moment in time-space when and where one leaves the three dimension of physical world to see beyond the physical being. It is from the moment of Zen consciousness that is opening positive Qi channels to see self-nature unveiled to access infinite universe intelligence and wisdom within.
