CHICAGO, IL (PRWEB) September 18, 2017 — Wouldn’t it be great to be a landlord, rather than a tenant? Just collect money and deposit into a bank account. Not only that, since the value of real estate never goes down, after a few years, sell it and live the life of Riley. Not so fast. The reality is, nothing is ever as simple as it looks. With income property ownership comes all sorts of responsibilities, issues, concerns and problems. Most of these can be handled with knowledge and preparation up-front. This Financial Poise Webinar series is designed to get listeners started on the road to wealth and financial security using the tremendous opportunities of commercial real estate. But be wary, there are bumps in the road.

The first episode of the series, "Landlord-Tenant Law Made Easy," airs on September 26th at 2pm CST (Register Here) and features Moderator Howard Kline of Howard Kline, Esquire. He is joined by Biff Ruttenberg of Atlas Partners, Courtney Gaines of CLEAR Property Management and Michael Hobbs of PahRoo Appraisal & Consultancy.

What’s the saying about “the best laid plans of mice & men?” No matter how planning and due diligence is done, something always goes wrong. Disputes happen between landlords and tenants, for many reasons. This webinar explores the areas most ripe for dispute, how landlords can try to protect themselves ahead of time, and the common law applicable to a number of the most common situations.

The REAL ESTATE INVESTING DUMBED DOWN - SO YOU WANT TO BE A LANDLORD? 2017 webinar series is sponsored by EisnerAmper. Future episodes in the series include "Leases Deconstructed," airing on October 24th, and "Green/LEED Building Opportunities," airing on November 28th. All episodes are made available live through West LegalEdcenter and will be available on-demand following their live release.

Each episode is delivered in Plain English understandable to business owners and executives without much background in these areas. Yet, each episode is proven to be valuable to seasoned professionals. As with all Financial Poise Webinars, each episode in the series brings you into engaging, sometimes humorous, conversations designed to entertain as it teaches. And, as with all Financial Poise Webinars, each episode in the series is designed to be viewed independently of the other episodes, so that participants will enhance their knowledge of this area whether they attend one, some, or all of the episodes.
