IT Executives Across the Siouxland Region Gather in Sioux Falls on November 2 for Education, Collaboration and Networking.

Over 200 local IT executives will gather on November 2 at the Siouxland IT Symposium, which is being held at the Sioux Falls Convention Center for a day of education, collaboration, and networking. This event allows CIOs, VPs and Directors to gather together to discuss common issue and learn what others have done to develop solutions to these problems.

(PRWEB) October 06, 2017 -- The 10th Annual Siouxland IT Symposium is returning to the Sioux Falls Convention Center on Thursday, November 2, 2017. This is a one-day, executive-level event designed for Chief Information Officers and their management teams. There will be over 200 CIOs and members of their executive management teams present at this year’s event.

The event will be highlighted by three keynote speakers. Gert Garmin will open the event with her discussion titled, "Collabor8. Cre8. Innov8. Thinking Beyond What You've Always Done". This talk will teach you how to get unstuck and keep things fresh to continually innovate.

Dakota State University President Dr. José-Marie Griffiths will discuss the flood of cybercrime that is headed toward every meaningful endeavor in the country. What organizations must do to prepare for these attacks, and how you can engage with and benefit from the work that is going on at DSU.

The day will end with a special interactive experience by Garet Qualls. Garet uses mind reading demonstrations to teach simple human connection techniques that will improve team chemistry and culture.

If you and your team would like to join us for a great day of education, networking, and collaboration, please register at www.siouxlanditsymposium.com. If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to reach out to me.
