Grim, Biehn and Thatcher, Established in 1895, Welcomes Three New Attorneys

Grim, Biehn and Thatcher of Perkasie, Pa., is pleased to welcome attorneys Julieanne E. Bateman, Mitchell H. Baylarian and Ian W. Peltzman to the firm.

PERKASIE, Penn. (PRWEB) November 19, 2018 -- Grim, Biehn & Thatcher of Perkasie, Pa., is pleased to welcome attorneys Julieanne E. Bateman, Mitchell H. Baylarian and Ian W. Peltzman to the firm.

Julieanne E. Bateman, a resident of Philadelphia, Pa., received a bachelor’s degree from George Washington University and a law degree from Catholic University. Her areas of practice include civil litigation, employment law, domestic relations, and criminal law. Prior to joining the firm, Bateman was an assistant district attorney in Franklin County, Pa. and clerked for the Honorable Robert O. Baldi in the Bucks County Court of Common Pleas.

Mitchell H. Baylarian, a resident of Lafayette Hill, Pa., received a bachelor’s degree from Franklin and Marshall College and a law degree from Pennsylvania State University. His areas of practice include family law and criminal law. Baylarian previously worked at the Chester County Public Defender’s Office and at a small, busy law firm in Doylestown. In 2016, he was appointed by the Bucks County Court of Common Pleas as a conflict attorney representing parents in Children and Youth Matters.

Ian W. Peltzman, originally from Fort Washington, Pa., received a bachelor’s degree from the University of Pennsylvania, a law degree from Boston College and is currently pursuing a Master of Laws degree at Temple University. His areas of practice include elder law, estate planning and estate administration. Peltzman recently completed the Mediation/Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) Training Certification course.

“Julieanne, Mitchell and Ian all bring with them a wealth of experiences in a variety of practice areas,” said Gregory E. Grim, CEO of Grim, Biehn & Thatcher. “They are a huge asset to the firm and to our clients.”
