InfoMart Founder Tammy Cohen Wins Silver Stevie® Award For Maverick of the Year

Women Around the World Recognized at Event in New York City

ATLANTA (PRWEB) November 20, 2018 -- Tammy Cohen, Founder and Chief Visionary Officer of InfoMart, has been named the winner of a Silver Stevie Award in the Maverick of the Year category in the 15th annual Stevie Awards for Women in Business.

The Stevie Awards for Women in Business honor women executives, entrepreneurs, employees, and the companies they run - worldwide. The Stevie Awards have been hailed as the world's premier business awards, and the Maverick of the Year recognizes the individual who has affected the most positive change on her organization and/or industry.

Nicknamed the Stevies for the Greek word for "crowned," the awards were presented to winners last night during a dinner event attended by more than 550 people at the Sheraton New York Times Square Hotel in New York City. The event was broadcast via Livestream.

"The Stevie Awards receive thousands of submissions from all over the world each year and have become a very coveted prize," said Tammy Cohen. "It's an incredible honor to be recognized by them. Leading InfoMart has taught me a great deal about being a maverick - InfoMart has been innovating and changing the background screening industry since the beginning."

Gold, Silver and Bronze Stevie Award winners were determined by the average scores of more than 200 business professionals around the world, working on six juries.
