Xulon Author Releases Children’s Book about Understanding Faith and God’s Love

Along with the hope, love, and faith we have through God, our children should also know about His grace available to them.

FORT WORTH, Texas (PRWEB) November 22, 2018 -- Within the pages of Michael Eddie Bancroft’s children’s book, The Greatest Gift ($12.49, paperback, 9781545646700; $22.99, hardcover, 9781545646717; $5.99, ebook, 9781545646724), readers, both adults and children alike, will find a book to help bring understanding about faith in God with His love and hope, and most of all, His grace.

In today’s society, Bancroft believes we need hope, love, and a strong faith to bless our children with, but His grace is for those who search for His love.

“The goodness of God is to reach the souls of His children, teaching them love though His writing,” says Bancroft. “Even adults will enjoy the story.”

Michael Eddie Bancroft was born in the state of Texas in the 1950s. He lived through fifty-two years trying to get by, not knowing how to read and write. He carried through the years living in fear. Now, he holds a GED and a social degree in theology.

Xulon Press, a division of Salem Media Group, is the world’s largest Christian self-publisher, with more than 12,000 titles published to date. The Greatest Gift is available online through xulonpress.com/bookstore, amazon.com, and barnesandnoble.com.
