The Garden of Eden Was Perfect Because of the Laws That Governed all Life Says Yisrayl Hawkins

Pastor at The House of Yahweh proves the earth can heal under Righteous management in new post this week.

ABILENE, Texas (PRWEB) November 23, 2018 -- Yisrayl Hawkins, Pastor and Overseer at The House of Yahweh in Abilene, Texas, has released a new publication this week that reveals the true beauty of the biblical Garden of Eden and why it flourished to the fullest. Yisrayl explains the Garden of Eden was established by a perfect set of Guiding Laws meant to benefit all of Creation. He continues to explain the popular biblical story in factual details that enlightens the reader to understand its origins better.

“Most people believe the Garden of Eden was just a cute story meant to entertain and create make believe movies and fairy tales. The real story is far from make-believe, and I’m going to show you the facts behind it,” Yisrayl explains.

Yisrayl says the key factor to keep in mind is the “Guiding Laws” that were placed in order to keep everything in line. He explains those same Guiding Laws are in effect today but are not being used by most people. He goes on to explain that if they were being used by all people, there would be more blessings in society than people would know what to do with. He says every individual would benefit and there would be no more poor versus the one percent.

“In Yahweh’s Laws are provisions for every person to be taken care of. No one is left to starve or do without basic essentials,” Yisrayl says.

Yisrayl says his goal is to let everyone in the world see the beautiful blessings that the Guiding Laws of Yahweh bring, so everyone will want to do their part in making them a part of their life.

Yisrayl says the best way to gain a better understanding of these Guiding Laws is to watch their weekly Sabbath Service live streams every seventh day of the week at 9:00am CST on their website and Facebook live.
