King Of Christmas, An Online Christmas Tree Retailer, Donates 500 Trees To Victims Of Northern California Fires

_Pennsylvania based company King Of Christmas donates 500 trees to families affected by the fires in Northern California in a gesture to bring both hope and joy in the holiday season_

WEST PITTSTON, Penn. (PRWEB) November 28, 2018 -- In a heartwarming gesture that is fitting for this Holiday season www.KingOfChristmas.com, an online artificial Christmas tree company, donated 500 trees to the families affected by fires in Northern California. This heartfelt donation was a way for the company to give back to individuals and families who lost precious possessions, beloved pets, and even family members as a result of the tragic fires. The owner felt that having a Christmas tree would help these families find comfort and togetherness after all that they had been through.

Kingofchristmas.com is a virtual Christmas tree store that was founded in November 2012. Since it’s early days as a newly minted store, it has grown to become one of the largest online retailers of Christmas trees nationwide. The company sells artificial Christmas trees of all sizes and types including artificial Christmas trees that are both lit and unlit, flocked Christmas trees, wreaths, and garlands. The company’s exponential growth shows no indication of stopping and the company is ready to give back to communities most impacted by the recent natural disasters that have affected the nation.

In addition to their large donation in Northern California, worth thousands of dollars in inventory, the Christmas tree online retailer plans to make another donation on December 5th in partnership with the Salvation Army. This time, the giveaway will go towards another group most impacted by the recent effects of Hurricane Florence in Wilmington, North Carolina. According to a rep from the company, there’s nothing that can replace everything lost to the hurricane but the gesture of a donated Christmas tree is a sign of hope, upliftment, and encouragement.

King Of Christmas has outlined their mission statement as offering the highest quality, premium artificial Christmas trees online at the most competitive prices. However, their donation of Christmas trees to the families affected by natural disasters is a clear demonstration of a far greater mission. It shows their unwavering commitment to unite families by offering a gift of the very symbol of everything that Christmas represents. Their donated trees will bring a bit more warmth and upliftment to over a thousand families this Holiday season.
