Yisrayl Hawkins Says The Euphrates River is Focal Point of Bible Prophecy in New Post

Pastor of The House of Yahweh explains U.S. presence in Middle East over the years is better explained by Bible rather than news.

ABILENE, Texas (PRWEB) December 28, 2018 -- Yisrayl Hawkins, Pastor and Overseer at The House of Yahweh in Abilene, Texas, has written a new post this week that focuses on current events, Bible Prophecy and how it all ties together.

Yisrayl says he follows news events, takes notes, and references the Scriptures to put all the puzzle pieces together. He says the Prophecies foretell moves made by various leaders who are all trying to stay ahead of the political game. Yisrayl says he is far from a politician but knows that the politicians are key players in Prophecy.

“The Prophecies are so clear when you understand how to put them together. It takes training and inspiration from Yahweh,” Yisrayl says.

“Every one of my teachings is based on pure Scriptural fact. I only teach what is in the Scriptures and can be proven. I know the Prophecies, and I can prove what I say,” Yisrayl proclaims.

Yisrayl says his prophesied commission is to take this Message to all nations and is hopeful this letter will be an important stepping stone to further teachings for the readers.

Yisrayl says the best way to gain a better understanding of these Prophecies is to watch their weekly Sabbath Service live streams every seventh day of the week at 9:00am CST on their website and Facebook live.
