Yisrayl Hawkins Says from the Beginning Yahweh Created Our Seven-Day Week and The Seventh Day Will Always Be The Sabbath in New Post This Week

The House of Yahweh follows original instruction and honors the Seventh Day according to Scriptures.

ABILENE, Texas (PRWEB) January 04, 2019 -- Yisrayl Hawkins, Pastor and Overseer at The House of Yahweh in Abilene, Texas, has written a new post this week that explains the one day of the week that is supposed to be set aside as holy. Yisrayl says contrary to teachings that “Sunday,” the first day of the week, is holy, he says that is scripturally incorrect and abhorrently misleading. Yisrayl says the Scriptures clearly state that the seventh day of each week is the Sabbath, the fourth of the Ten Commandments and is a day, which the Creator, Yahweh, ordained to meet with His People.

“The Seventh Day Sabbath is Eternal. It will always be the weekly day for families to assemble together with Yahweh throughout all eternity,” Yisrayl says.

Yisrayl adds that Yahweh only knows those who are obedient to His Laws. The Seventh Day Sabbath is a sign that sticks out like a shining light to one who is observing it correctly. He says The House of Yahweh is the only place on the face of the earth that teaches how to keep the Sabbath properly, according to the Laws and the instructions of the Savior, Yahshua Messiah.

“There is so much more to keeping the Sabbath than simply not working on your day off. There are helpful appointments you are invited to keep on that day, and we teach you how to do that,” Yisrayl comments.

Yisrayl says keeping the Sabbath properly is one step closer towards getting your prayers answered, and it’s a big step. He adds there are other enjoyable conditions to learn, and The House of Yahweh is there to guide anyone every step of the way. He says getting your prayers answered is just one phone call away to that blessing. “The House of Yahweh is standing by and ready to take your call and guide you towards answered prayers,” Yisrayl adds.

Yisrayl says the best way to gain a better understanding of these teachings is to watch their weekly Sabbath Service live streams every seventh day of the week at 9:00am CST on their website and Facebook live.
