International Elephant Foundation Names San Antonio Zoo CEO as Vice President/Secretary

San Antonio Zoo CEO and Executive Director named Vice President/Secretary of the International Elephant Foundation (IEF)

SAN ANTONIO (PRWEB) January 04, 2019 -- San Antonio Zoo is pleased to announce that CEO and Executive Director, Tim Morrow has been named incoming Vice President/Secretary of International Elephant Foundation. The International Elephant Foundation (IEF) is a non-profit corporation of individuals and institutions dedicated to the conservation of African and Asian elephants worldwide.

Morrow says, “I am honored not only to be on the Board of Directors of International Elephant Foundation, but to be voted into the position of Vice President/Secretary. This organization’s mission of supporting elephant conservation in managed facilities and in the wild aligns perfectly with the San Antonio Zoo’s vision and mission.”

"Tim Morrow and San Antonio Zoo provide adept expertise and financial support to the International Elephant Foundation, which shows their dedication to conservation and securing a future where elephants thrive," said Deborah Olson, Executive Director of the International Elephant Foundation. "We are lucky to have a strong, knowledgeable Board of Directors to guide our many elephant and habitat protection programs around the globe. Donations by individuals and corporate entities, and dynamic support by those like Tim, have enabled IEF to support over 150 projects and work on behalf of those who believe the world is a better place with elephants in it."
