Texas CPA Edward M. Gardner Helping Star of Hope Help the Less Fortunate

Edward M. Gardner, founder of Edward M. Gardner PC, marks 38 years assisting Star of Hope in its mission to serve Houston’s homeless men, women and children.

HOUSTON (PRWEB) February 01, 2019 -- For nearly four decades, Gardner has led a drive to collect donated clothing, toys and non perishable food items to Star of Hope on the first Sunday in December every year during its annual donation drive. “It is important for us to give back to our community for those less fortunate than we are,” said Gardner.

Gardner get’s an 18-wheeler donated every year and he fills up over 40 feet of it in one day every year with donated items from the community. To date, donations collected have enabled Star of Hope to clothe and feed approximately 363,500 people in need.

Star of Hope offers structured programs that focus on spiritual growth, education, employment, life management and recovery from substance abuse. It houses approximately 1,200 people.

“My dad was a wholesaler of food and we would get returned non-perishable food back from grocers. The food was still good so we would always donate it,” concluded Gardner. “We take from the community, we need to give back to the community.”
