Sir Grout's Hard Surface Restoration Services are Now Available in Orlando, FL

Sir Grout continues to grow with the addition of a new franchise in Orlando, Florida.

ORLANDO, Fla. (PRWEB) February 01, 2019 -- Sir Grout, the leading expert in hard surface restoration in the United States and abroad, has now arrived in a new territory with the introduction of Sir Grout Orlando. This brand-new franchise will provide the best tile, stone, and grout restoration services to residents in Orlando and nearby areas. Locals can learn more about their unique products and services through Sir Grout's Orlando website.

When asked about his new partnership with Sir Grout, Tom Fogarty, Sir Grout Orlando's owner, said the following: "We're glad to be part of such a reputable company in the hard surface restoration industry. Sir Grout has taught us everything we need to know to offer Orange County residents an accessible, top of the line service. From now on, we'll do our best in this territory to represent the quality Sir Grout is known for."

Sir Grout Orlando is the 41st Sir Grout franchise to open its doors to the public in the last decade. Like other franchises, Sir Grout Orlando will offer their renown hard surface restoration services to the public, which include tile and grout cleaning and sealing, stone honing and polishing, and grout recoloring, among others. These services will be available for both residential and commercial properties, so don't hesitate to contact them if your property is in dire need of hard surface restoration.

Why Should I Choose Sir Grout Orlando?

When Tom Lindberg and Jeff Gill founded Sir Grout in 2004, they always kept in mind the importance of keeping customers satisfied. This led them to create exceptional cost-effective solutions that have revolutionized the market for the past 15 years. Even now, they strive to keep innovating their products and practices to offer clients the best hard surface restoration services in the market. Sir Grout Orlando's owner, Tom Fogarty, shares this vision. Not only does this franchise have trained personnel, it also has the necessary tools to provide new franchisees with everything they need.
