PALM DESERT, Calif. (PRWEB) January 31, 2019 -- Local entrepreneur and experienced business leader Michele McGregor is thrilled to announce the launch of her new senior relocation and liquidation company, Caring Transitions Desert Cities.

Caring Transitions’ specially-trained professionals handle decluttering, organizing, packing, moving, resettling, in-person estate sales, and online auctions, liquidations, and preparing homes for market. While the services are tailored for seniors, they can be customized for any situation. Caring Transitions Desert Cities serves Palm Desert, Palm Springs, Indian Wells, Cathedral City, La Quinta, Rancho Mirage, Coachella, Indio and Desert Hot Springs.

“Caring Transitions Desert Cities is locally owned and operated, but the Caring Transitions franchise has operated across the United States for more than ten years and now has more than 200 locations. The members of our team are specifically trained and certified professionals who provide end-to-end services for anyone who is relocating, downsizing or in transition,” McGregor said. “I look forward to being the trusted resource that people can turn to either for themselves or with a loved one.’’

McGregor’s background is in psychology and she has worked in health care and human resource management positions leading teams across North America for more than 15 years. She is also a dedicated community volunteer and, over the last eight years, McGregor has held a variety of front-line volunteer positions with Dress for Success, including Director of Community Relations. Dress for Success is a charity that empowers women to achieve economic independence, by providing a network of support, professional attire and development tools to help them thrive in work and life.

“The experience of volunteering and seeing, first-hand, the impact one person can make fueled my passion to do something that would continue to make a positive difference in the lives of others. Finding Caring Transitions and learning about the services this company provides was life changing. I never imagined there would be a business that could empower and support people with care and compassion while going through life transitions, but now that I’m part of the Caring Transitions family, I see the huge positive impact this company has on people every day. I’m excited to be part of that,” McGregor said.

Caring Transitions’ services are perfect for managing the many aspects of a senior move or assisting with the process of downsizing to provide a safer living situation as well as for busy families and people clearing out the home of a loved one who has moved into assisted care or passed. All of Caring Transitions’ services are customizable, so clients choose the solution that best fits their needs – whether that means managing the entire move and estate-clearing, just getting someone resettled into their new place, or anything in between.

“It is difficult to prepare for the time that you need to downsize, move to a different living situation or clear out an estate when a loved one passes, especially if you do not live close by. It produces unexpected feelings and stressors. Our promise is to reduce stress and offer solutions every step of the way,” McGregor said.
Caring Transitions Desert Cities is bonded, insured and all W-2 employees are all background checked. McGregor is also Relocation Transition Specialist Certified (CRTS).
