OnlineMasters.com Names Top Master's in Organizational Management Programs for 2019

Career opportunities for graduates include high-level roles managing human resources or IT departments

SEATTLE (PRWEB) February 15, 2019 -- OnlineMasters.com, a trusted source for unbiased college rankings and higher education planning, announced the release of their Best Online Master's in Organizational Management Programs for 2019. The research identifies the top programs in the nation based on curriculum quality, program flexibility, affordability, and graduate outcomes.

In addition to insights gained from industry professionals, OnlineMasters.com leveraged an exclusive data set comprised of interviews and surveys from current students and alumni. Each online degree program was analyzed with only 25 making it to the final list. The methodology incorporates the most recent data from the Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System (IPEDS) and statistical data from the National Center for Education Statistics. Most importantly, only programs from accredited nonprofit institutions were eligible.

“An advanced degree in organizational management offers the flexibility to work in leadership roles across various industries,” says Barbara Montgomery, Program Recognition Manager. “Graduates in this management-related field can also expect a higher earning potential than other master’s graduates.”

Students who pursue a master’s in organizational management can obtain high-level management roles in human resources, IT or training and development. The steady job growth in this market is just one of the many reasons OnlineMasters.com researched, analyzed, and ranked the Top Master’s in Organizational Management programs.
