NEW YORK (PRWEB) February 21, 2019 -- The Warsaw Office of Greenberg Traurig represented Agora S.A. in the acquisition of a 40% stake in Eurozet sp. z o.o. and negotiation of a shareholders agreement with its majority shareholder SFS Ventures s.r.o., governing the cooperation of both Eurozet shareholders.

“Greenberg Traurig’s participation in this transaction is part of our long-standing and major practice in the area of mergers and acquisitions in the media sector and confirms our leading position in such transactions.” said Jarosław Grzesiak, Managing Partner of Greenberg Traurig in Poland.

The Greenberg Traurig team was led by Partner Rafał Baranowski. The team consisted of: Managing Partner Jarosław Grzesiak, Partner Robert Gago, Filip Kijowski (Senior Associate), Ewa Tabor-Maciejewska (Senior Associate) and Tomasz Denko (Associate).

Agora S.A. is one of the largest and most well-known media corporations in Poland, as the publisher of Gazeta Wyborcza, a nationwide opinion-leading daily newspaper. Agora S.A. also owns three local music radio stations: Złote Przeboje, Rock Radio and Radio Pogoda, the online radio station Tuba FM, and it is the majority owner of the multiregional Radio TOK FM. Its shares have been listed on the Warsaw Stock Exchange since 1999.

Eurozet is one of the leading media groups in Poland, involved in the production and broadcasting of radio programming, sale of advertising spots, brokerage activities for stations and online services, as well as the development and management of online services. It includes five stations: Radio ZET, Antyradio, Chillizet, Meloradio, and Radio Plus, online services, Studio ZET, which produces commercials, and Eurozet Live, a brand dedicated to venue and event marketing.
