The Love: A Book to Create a World Without Terrorism Written by 6 Year-Old Soborno Isaac Bari who Received Recognition from President Obama in 2016

The Love shares four-year-old Muslim Soborno Isaac Bari’s fight with Imams to change their perception on non-Muslims and his fights with Muslim Americans to denounce terrorism and be patriotic.

BRONX, N.Y. (PRWEB) April 11, 2019 -- The Love, a book written by six-year-old Soborno Isaac, aims to create a world without terrorism. The book is based on two events Soborno experienced. First, he asked an imam to pray for America on the eve of the 4th of July, but the imam refused to do so, documented in the film I’m a Muslim and I Love America. Second, he saw a man repeatedly hurl insults at Christmas tree on Christmas Eve, documented in the film I Love Christmas. Often, ideas from children like Soborno go unnoticed or are ignored. However, Dr. Thomas Isekenegbe, president of Bronx Community College, refused to ignore Soborno Isaac’s talent after conducting a series of interviews with him. He wrote the introduction for “The Love”. This book is now available in bookstores around the world including Amazon and Barnes & Noble.

BOOK TOUR:
Soborno went to Washington DC-on April 6, 2019 to give a book talk on my new book “The Love”. When the moderator asked me, “why would a 6 year-old write a book on terrorism?” He said “because I saw the horrors of terror in 2015 and I launched an anti-terrorism campaign, “The Love” later that year”. My campaign got momentum after I received recognition from President Obama in 2016 and Harvard in 2018. I wrote this book to promote my campaign.

Two documentaries describe the stories that motivated me to write The Love—I’m Muslim & I Love America and I’m Muslim: I Love Christmas. The documentaries created an anti-terrorism movement around the world, including Bangladesh. In fact, thousands of people sent me posters containing the main theme of The Love, which is based on the following idea:

“As a Muslim, I love Islam. But I also love Hinduism, Buddhism, Judaism, and Christianity. I love to celebrate Eid. But I also love to celebrate Durga Puja, Modhu Purnima, Rosh Hashanah, and Christmas. Let’s unleash love to defeat terrorism.”

About Soborno Isaac:
Six-year-old Soborno is a student in a New York City gifted and talented program. He received the title “Einstein of our Time” from City College of New York President Dr. Lisa Cioco. In 2016, he became the second Bengali (Dr. Yunus being the first) to receive recognition from President Obama for his ability to solve Ph.D.-level math, physics, chemistry, and computer science problems. He has received recognition from many universities around the world, including Harvard. The Love is his first book.

Rashidul Bari

(718)-844-8461
rb3080(at)columbia.edu
bari-science-lab.com

Amazon Link: https://lnkd.in/eaaU9pB
Barnes & Noble Link: https://www.barnesandnoble.com/w/books/1130940737?ean=9781728301969
Book tour: https://youtu.be/U43zi6AqZr0

If you have any questions regarding information in these press releases please contact the company listed in the press release. Our complete disclaimer appears here - PRWeb ebooks - Another online visibility tool from PRWeb.
Contact Information
Rashidul Bari
rb3080@tc.columbia.edu
+1 (718) 844-8461

Online Web 2.0 Version
You can read the online version of this press release here.