US Sports Camps and Vogelsinger Soccer Academy Prepares for its 54th Summer

_The Nike Vogelsinger Soccer Academy celebrates its 54th year of training some of the best and most dedicated soccer athletes from across the globe._

SAN RAFAEL, Calif. (PRWEB) April 11, 2019 -- This summer offers the same outstanding technical progression training program, the foundation of what has made the Vogelsinger Academy stand apart from other soccer camps. New this year is the addition of weekly position training, in addition to the traditional and detailed technical and tactical study of this great game.

“We have listened and responded to our players, requesting more of the positional/tactical aspects of soccer training each week. In years past these skills have been emphasized more heavily on certain weeks versus others,” says Jan O’Connor VP of Vogelsinger Soccer Academy. “This summer players will train in dynamic sessions, taught in realistic individual technical skill sequences. Campers have the opportunity to learn all of these aspects regardless of the week they attend.”

Vogelsinger Soccer Academy returns this summer 2019 to its four locations across the U.S. UC Santa Barbara, CA; The Pennington School, NJ; Carthage College, Kenosha, WI & The Brooks School, North Andover, MA.
