Los Angeles Times Festival of Books Taiwan’s Charming Small Towns Await!

Visit the Taiwan Tourism Bureau booth at The Los Angeles Times Festival of Books for Small Towns Tourism info; try the new Small Towns Tourism buzzer game for special souvenirs and more!

LOS ANGELES (PRWEB) April 13, 2019 -- The largest family driven book festival on the West Coast – The Los Angeles Times Festival of Books – will take place at the University of Southern California this weekend (April 13-14). Taiwan’s versatile nature, rich history, and local specialty foods are the catalysts of Taiwan’s 368 charming small towns. Taiwan Tour-ism Bureau selected seven incredible small towns, including Beitou in Taipei, Sa-nyi in Miaoli, Lukang in Changhua, Meinong in Kaohsiung, Wutai in Pingtung, Jhihben in Taitung, Ruisui in Hualien, and Dongshan in Yilan, to promote through a fun and educational engaging booth game. It will be an amazing fami-ly-fun weekend for everyone to enjoy.

“Taiwan is an island well known for its high mountains and complex geologic sceneries. Along with desirable weather and cultural influences, Taiwan produces bounty of vegetables, fruits, and a variety of seafood, all of which are enticing options for food lovers. Every small town in Taiwan is blessed with different ap-peals. For example, Dadaocheng embodies a combination of Hokkien, Western, and Baroque style vintage street houses perfect for architecture enthusiasts to im-merse themselves in. Internationally recognized ‘Slow City’ – Sanyi in Miaoli – is a must-visit area for nature and woodcraft lovers. Not only is the DIY wooden duck a great painting activity for adults and kids alike, but also a memorable souvenir to take home. For hot spring lovers, make sure to visit Jhihben Hot Springs and explore the indigenous villages and Luye Highland Tea Farm”, shared Brad Shih, Director of Taiwan Tourism Bureau’s Los Angeles Office.

Taiwan Tourism Bureau’s Charming Small Town booth will have everyone’s fa-vorite Oh!Bear Mascot there to play the newest version of the buzzer game with event goers. Challenge winners will receive chopsticks with beautiful Hakka pat-tern, limited edition Taiwan Lantern Festival piggy lanterns, and have a taste of Viva Poprice’s Taiwanese style “popcorn”. Travel specialists will share infor-mation on traveling to Taiwan, and top quality travel packages by All State Travel, America Asia Travel, SITA World Tour, Sonic Travel & Tours Super Value Tours and XO Tours will be available as well. We welcome you to join us at the Los Angeles Times Festival of Books with free admission, and enjoy learning about the unique appeal of Taiwan’s small towns!

Follow Taiwan Tourism Bureau’s official fan page at www.facebook.com/TourTaiwan for the most updated travel information!
Contact Information
Air Supply Communications
Air Supply Communications
+1 (626) 350-7888

Online Web 2.0 Version
You can read the online version of this press release here.