New Drama Mayhem Game Plays Well on Kickstarter, Raising More than Four times Its Campaign Goal on Kickstarter

Combining the fun of ‘Cards Against Humanity’ with ‘Charades’, the hilarious role-play game offers six million different funny and dramatic scenarios for friends and families to enjoy and is also great for team-building at company events

PORTLAND, Ore. (PRWEB) April 29, 2019 -- Drama Mayhem, an interactive role-play game where players take turns acting out funny, dramatic and controversial roles, is an instant hit on Kickstarter– surpassing $10,000 in presales in less than a week, four-times its crowdfunding goal.

“We’re very pleased to reach this point in presales and appreciate the support of our backers on Kickstarter, who will be the first to enjoy Drama Mayhem,” said game creator Don Wilder. “With over six million possible character and game scenarios, we promise that Drama Mayhem will never get old.”

To play, players select one person to be “the judge,” who then draws a ‘scenario card’ and selects two role-players. From there, a game timer is set for 60 seconds and spectating players enjoy the performances – with the judge selecting the winner at the end of each round.

The game also comes with ‘quirk cards,’ which make the role plays even more wild and interesting with unlikely random match-ups of characters adding to the hilarity of the unique scenarios.

“For people who enjoy party games, think of Drama Mayhem as a cross between ‘Cards Against Humanity’ and ‘Charades,’” Wilder said. “For those into acting or improv, it’s the easiest way for people to get a quick lineup of awesome scenarios, characters and Quirk prompts in one great game.”

The base Drama Mayhem Game, available for a $20 pledge, is for ages six and up and comes with:

- 60 Scenario Cards
- 60 Quirk Cards
- 3 Game Coins
- Game Instructions
- Game Packaging Box

In addition to offering a fun game for family and friends at home, Wilder says Drama Mayhem is also a great team-building activity “that’s perfect for corporate ice-breaking events, pre-meeting warm-ups, and company retreats.”

Crowdfunders can also invest $15 more to receive an ‘Adult Extension Pack’ which includes an additional 60 ‘adult-only’ scenario cards, more in the ‘Cards Against Humanity’ ilk.

“We created the extension pack of 60 cards for 18 years and up for the college age and young-adult party crowd and for fun at dinner parties when the adults are having a good time without the kids,” he said. “With either version, Drama Mayhem does more than break the ice for social get-togethers… and it’s certain to bring some hilarious moments of laughter to your group of friends and family members.”
Wilder says the idea behind the game is to bring out fun, crazy dramatic scenarios and characters that players can act out – providing a fun, simple game format that brings people closer together.

“Our tag line is ‘game night will never be the same,’ and we think Drama Mayhem fits that perfectly,” Wilder said. “We love stories, and every good story is marked by some type of drama or dilemma, and Drama Mayhem puts some ‘good drama’ back in the world.”
