Blumenthal Nordrehaug Bhomik De Blouw LLP File Lawsuit Against Spectraforce Technologies, Inc., Alleging the Company Failed to Pay Overtime to Their Employees

The class action complaint alleges that Spectraforce Technologies, Inc., failed to pay proper overtime wages and did not provide the legally required off-duty meal and rest breaks to their employees

SANTA CLARA, Calif. (PRWEB) May 09, 2019 -- The San Francisco Labor law attorneys at Blumenthal Nordrehaug Bhowmik De Blouw LLP filed a class action lawsuit against Spectraforce Technologies, Inc., alleging that the companies failed to lawfully provide meal and rest periods and, also pay overtime wages to their California employees. The class action lawsuit against Spectraforce Technologies, Inc., is currently pending in the Santa Clara County Superior Court, Case No. 19CV346604. To read a copy of the Complaint, please click here.

The lawsuit filed against Spectraforce Technologies, Inc., alleges the company failed and continues to fail to accurately calculate and pay their California non-exempt employees for overtime worked. Allegedly, Spectraforce Technologies, Inc., unlawfully and unilaterally fails to accurately calculate wages for overtime worked by their employees in order to avoid paying them the correct overtime compensation. State law provides that employees must be paid overtime at one-and-one-half times their “regular rate of pay.”

Additionally, the lawsuit alleges PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA CLASS Members were also from time to time unable to take off duty meal breaks and were not fully relieved of duty for meal periods due to their rigorous work schedules. PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA CLASS Members were required to perform work as ordered by DEFENDANT for more than five (5) hours during a shift without receiving an off-duty meal break.
