MA Lawyers Weekly Names Keystone Partners Best Lawyer Outplacement Service for Third Year in a Row

2019 Reader Rankings Name Keystone Partners Legal Winner of Best Outplacement Service for Attorneys in Massachusetts

BOSTON (PRWEB) August 27, 2019 -- Keystone Partners, a Boston-based career transition and leadership development firm, announced today that it has been named “Best Lawyer Outplacement Service” by Massachusetts Lawyers Weekly. 2019 marks the third consecutive year the Reader Rankings program of Massachusetts Lawyers Weekly recognizes Keystone Partners for its outstanding work in supporting the transition of members of the legal community.

“It is a great honor for our team to be recognized for the third year for providing a critical service in supporting the transition of members of the legal community from one phase of their careers to the next,” said Colleen Torell, Vice President, and Practice Lead for Keystone Partners Legal, a service of Keystone Partners.

Keystone Partners Legal has provided career transition services to law firms throughout New England for more than 35 years. The Keystone team has worked with hundreds of general counsel, partners, associates, and legal staff at all levels – both in-house and at top law firms – to successfully transition them into new positions or careers. And, the firms they leave behind are more likely to experience successful transitions that support a strong professional reputation in the business community.

“Attorney transitions require special services and we have built a comprehensive offering of career transition, leadership development, and retirement planning skills to ensure this process occurs seamlessly,” said Elaine Varelas, Managing Partner of Keystone Partners. “Our consultants’ depth of knowledge and breadth of experience in law-related job searches efficiently prepares professionals for alternative career paths beyond the legal field.”

Keystone Partners’ service offerings include outplacement, executive coaching, leadership development, retirement, and career reinvention. Each program is tailored to meet the unique needs of lawyers, legal professionals, corporate, non-profit, and government legal department professionals as they strive to achieve their career goals. Keystone Partners delivers services on a national and international basis through its partnership with Career Partners International.
