Xulon Press Author Assures His Readers That Every Life Has an Eternal Purpose

In a world full of ostensibly random occurrences, there is a plan for each individual.

ST. HUBERT, Quebec (PRWEB) October 10, 2019 -- Author Julian Uribe believes nothing happens by chance. He tells a story of a young man whose life was changed by a seemingly chance encounter in [El Joven Poeta y el Contador de Historias] ($15.49, paperback, 9781545674390; $7.99, e-book, 9781545674406).

In this Spanish novel, a young man searching for a job ends up working on the farm of an old storyteller. Through the man’s stories, young David learns that sometimes one needs the help of a higher power to fulfill his destiny.

“In life we learn that something as sublime as love, or the purpose of existence, demands much more than what mere human effort can give,” said Uribe.

Julian Uribe immigrated to Canada with his wife, his children, one guitar and eight suitcases full of dreams. He is a Christ follower, seed planter, and founder of the ministry Hay Una Historia.

Xulon Press, a division of Salem Media Group, is the world’s largest Christian self-publisher, with more than 15,000 titles published to date. [El Joven Poeta y el Contador de Historias] is available online through xulonpress.com/bookstore, amazon.com, and barnesandnoble.com and the eBook is also available on iTunes.
Contact Information
Julian Uribe
Salem Author Services
http://www.hayunahistoria.com
407-339-4217

Online Web 2.0 Version
You can read the online version of this press release here.