Xulon Press Presents Readers with a New, Godly Perspective of Themselves

Through Christ, God sees beautiful things in you!

CLAYTON, N.C. (PRWEB) October 12, 2019 -- Author Philip Dahn invites readers to see themselves through God’s eyes in Abundantly and Outrageously Blessed: The Power of Seeing Yourself as God Sees You ($14.49, paperback, 9781545616840; $6.99, e-book, 9781545618813). He recognizes that many of us do not view ourselves the way God views us and he encourages readers to see their true image.

“This book is an invitation to discover the good things that are ours in Christ Jesus, and to embrace the truth that in Him we are abundantly and outrageously blessed,” said Dahn.

Philip Dahn has been a student of the Word for more than forty years and a Bible teacher for nearly thirty years. He has traveled widely in the United States, teaching the truths of the Word of God. He currently resides in the greater Raleigh-Durham area in North Carolina.

Xulon Press, a division of Salem Media Group, is the world’s largest Christian self-publisher, with more than 15,000 titles published to date. Abundantly and Outrageously Blessed is available online through xulonpress.com/bookstore, amazon.com, and barnesandnoble.com.
Contact Information
Philip Dahn
Salem Author Services
407-339-4217

Online Web 2.0 Version
You can read the online version of this press release here.