Author Debra Kay’s new book “The Revenge and Madness of Maggie” is a gripping and potent tale of paranormal interference and revenge in a small Nevada town.

Recent release “The Revenge and Madness of Maggie” from Page Publishing author Debra Kay is a compelling page-turner introducing a small group of childhood friends brought together after the tragic and unexplained death of two sets of parents. Paige, Blake, and Gage collaborate with the mysterious owners of a curiosity shop to unearth the otherworldly secrets of Paige’s family home.

NEW YORK (PRWEB) November 07, 2019 -- Debra Kay, a married mother of two teenage daughters currently residing in eastern Washington, where she enjoys being in and around the water, exercising, going to church, and cheering for the Dallas Cowboys, has completed her new book “The Revenge and Madness of Maggie”: a spellbinding tale blending witchcraft, romance, and vengeance from beyond the grave.

Childhood friends Paige Emerson and Blake Allan return to their small mountain valley hometown of Cassiel, Nevada after their families tragically and suddenly pass away. Upon arrival, Paige immediately realizes something is lurking in her late father’s home that shouldn’t be there and with the help of Blake, sets out to discover what it is and how it got there.

Gage Winkman, Paige’s high school sweetheart, Blake’s closest friend, and one of two police officers in town, has been looking after their parents’ properties and noticed some odd occurrences since their demise. Gage was looking forward to his childhood pals returning not just because of his hopes to rekindle a romance with Paige but to find out what could be behind the strange happenings.

Misty and Galen Lett, together with Celeste Rain, run Mystery, a curiosity shop in Cassiel; it was rumored that the women were witches. Good witches, but still witches. Since the unexpected deaths of Paige and Blake’s families, they had been receiving not-so-subtle signs that their assistance would be needed once Paige returned to town.

What is in the house? How did it get there? And will Paige survive the Revenge and Madness of Maggie?

Published by New York City-based Page Publishing, Debra Kay’s engrossing book is a riveting page-turner from beginning to end.

Readers who wish to experience this engaging work can purchase “The Revenge and Madness of Maggie” at bookstores everywhere, or online at the Apple iTunes store, Amazon, Google Play, or Barnes and Noble.
