Join the Celebration

The 2019 NOJEX-ASDA Postage Stamp EXPO in partnership with the USPS® is proud to announce a three-day philatelic celebration like no other — U.S. Battleships, the Transcontinental Railroad, and the First Moon Landing!

Each day of the show will spotlight a significant event in the history of the United States with a special cancel and cachet. On November 15, the USS Missouri will be celebrated with a USPS® Special Dedication Ceremony at 11 a.m. EST. November 16, the Transcontinental Railroad will be honored and on November 17, the First Moon Landing will be highlighted. Other exciting events are being planned for the show. Chris Calle, noted space artist, author, and son of Paul Calle, Apollo 11 artist, will be in attendance Saturday and Sunday with a display of space art and the lastest edition of Apollo 11.

The USS Battleship New Jersey Museum will have a booth. They will have a model of the famous battleship and a representative from the group will be giving a talk.

What To Do at the Show

Attend the United States Postal Service Special Dedication to the First Responders Ceremony — The USPS™ will celebrate the USS Missouri with a special ceremony, Friday, November 15 at 11 a.m. The stamps and more will be available at the USPS™ Booth. The celebration will feature a special guest from the US Battleship New Jersey.

Bid at Live Auctions — The H.R. Harmer Auction Sale #3030 will feature the Eldon Mohler Collection of U.S. Cacheted First Day Covers (Part 1), Saturday, November 16. Lot viewing will be available at the show all day Friday and until noon on Saturday. McIntyre, George Laffert, Bernard Goldberg, R.C. Beazell, Dyer, and numerous others. Many of these unique covers have been off the market for decades, and we anticipate that their reappearance at public auction will elicit considerable excitement from the philatelic community. Mr. Mohler’s collection contains the greatest collection of Art Cover Exchange hand painted covers ever assembled. There are over 2,000 mostly unique covers, highly prized and seldom offered.
