Cofense Teams Up with AwareGO to Expand Security Awareness Training

The partnership further strengthens Cofense’s market-leading position in intelligent phishing defense solutions.

LEESBURG, Va. (PRWEB) November 05, 2019 -- Cofense™, the global leader in intelligent phishing defense solutions, and AwareGO (awarego.com), creators of succinct, high-quality security awareness training videos, today announced their partnership to empower organizations across the globe to tackle today’s top security issues head-on.

Fifteen modules are currently available to customers of Cofense’s PhishMe solution. Since releasing Cofense CBFree as part of National Cybersecurity Awareness Month (#BeCyberSmart) in October 2015, Cofense has recognized that creative, accurate content and training materials are important to security awareness professionals to keep their programs engaging and interesting to maximize success with employees.

“Our goal has always been to create high-quality security awareness training videos that users can relate to,” says Ragnar Sigurdsson, CEO and founder, AwareGO. “We are truly excited to work with Cofense and provide them with our content. Not only are we collaborating to make cyber security training better and more engaging, it’s also an effort to make businesses more cyber secure in the long run. It’s an honor to work with Cofense and we see it as an affirmation to the quality of our videos that they chose to work with us.”

“All organizations must educate their employees about cyber security risks,” said Allan Carey, vice president of business development, Cofense. “That’s why we’re proud to partner with AwareGO to bolster the fresh, engaging and relevant training content available to customers and their employees. Effective employee education, training and behavioral conditioning is a critical element of a robust cyber defense strategy, allowing organizations to enhance their resiliency to attacks.”
