Mediacurrent Wins Two 2019 Acquia Engage Awards

Award Program Showcases Outstanding Examples of Digital Experience Delivery, Featuring CAS.org for Best ROI and Mediacurrent’s Rain Install Profile for Open Source Giants

ALPHARETTA, Ga. (PRWEB) November 06, 2019 -- Mediacurrent today announced it was selected as the winner of two categories in the 2019 Acquia Engage Awards. Along with CAS, a division of the American Chemical Society, Mediacurrent was recognized for “Best Return on Investment.” Rain, an enterprise-grade Drupal 8 installation profile, won the category for “Open Source Giants.” The Acquia Engage Awards recognize the world-class digital experiences that organizations are building with the Acquia Open Digital Experience Platform.

Best Return on Investment: CAS.org
With just over two months to launch a redesigned website, CAS, a specialist in scientific information solutions, partnered with Mediacurrent to reimagine and rebuild CAS.org. The Drupal 8 and Acquia-powered platform reduced the time-to-market for a new customer engagement strategy. CAS, made the most of its digital experience investment — with the performance results to prove it. Read more in our CAS.org case study.

Open Source Giants: Mediacurrent’s Rain Install Profile
The Rain install profile was created by Mediacurrent to add out-of-the-box editorial, administrative, and media enhancements to the core Drupal 8 installation. Modeled after Acquia’s Lightning and Thunder distributions, the Rain profile packages and pre-configures many core and contributed modules to make building Drupal websites faster and easier. Best of all, it’s free and open source. Learn more about Rain.
