

SportsSignup Offers Customers Free Online Registration for Special Events and Causes

SportsSignup gives back to its customers by offering free sports registration for philanthropic efforts. SportsSignup does not charge any fee for this service and does not receive a percentage of donations.

Saratoga Springs, NY (PRWEB) June 2, 2009 -- SportsSignup, a leading provider of online sports registration and league management systems for youth sports organizations, now offers its customers a free online registration system for fundraising events or causes.

SportsSignup For a Cause allows SportsSignup customers to set-up secure online sports registration forms and credit card payment options for their fundraising events, as well as for other events in their community. There is no fee for this value-added service, nor does SportsSignup receive a percentage of donations. SportsSignup employees donate their time to this effort.

"This is SportsSignup's way of giving back to the organizations and communities who choose us for their online sports registration and league management systems," said SportsSignup CEO Anthony Bruno. "People who are involved in youth sports are usually involved in their communities in general. We applaud them for their efforts and hope we can help them achieve all of their fundraising goals."

SportsSignup For a Cause originated with an emotional customer inquiry. Ken Andronowitz, the volunteer Webmaster for SportsSignup customer South County Youth Lacrosse in Narragansett, RI, also volunteers his time with the Katie DeCubellis Memorial Foundation \(KDMF\) established in memory of a 13-year-old student-athlete who was killed by a drunk driver. Mr. Andronowitz was so impressed by the ease and convenience of SportsSignup's online sports registration system for his lacrosse league that he asked if the system could be put to use for the annual KDMF 5K road race. SportsSignup jumped at the opportunity to help.

"With more than 600 participants in the race, entries were becoming exceedingly difficult to manage in paper form," Mr. Andronowitz said. "SportsSignup has allowed us to reduce the time we spend processing entries and spend our time where it's most important -- attracting more racers and donations, publicizing the dangers of drunk driving, and honoring Katie's memory."

SportsSignup For a Cause is the latest in a series of value-added services offered by SportsSignup to its customers. The company's secure, affordable, and hassle-free online sports registration system enables volunteers from soccer, baseball, lacrosse, hockey and many other youth sports organizations to spend more time on the playing field than on administrative tasks.
