Mary Gersten and the Global Cash Flow Network team make it their mission to transform the home-based and Internet-based business community with time tested proven training, coaching and support as delivered in the Certified Media Placement Specialist program.

Tempe, AZ (PRWEB) July 15, 2009 -- Mary Gersten, Vice President of Global Cash Flow Network is passionate about "How To" succeed in home and internet businesses <http://www.MaryGersten-Exposed.com>.

Craig James, Editor of MaryGersten-Exposed website, has been reporting "on the good, bad and the ugly" pertinent to Global Cash Flow Network since December 2006. Craig recognizes that Global Cash Flow Network have created a unique and exciting possibility on the Internet for home and online businesses. The CMPS program delivers media placement skills, support and business tools appropriately designed for seasoned or novice business owners irregardless of their computer literacy. Mary Gersten knows her audience and is passionate about delivering step-by-step training that will not leave any of her audience behind. Mary Gersten herself comes from a surprising background, and it's those experiences that helped to shape the CMPS program. The Certified Media Placement Specialist concept is unique. Craig alleges that "unlike what I've seen elsewhere, there is no personal selling, no phone calls and no meetings."

Global Cash Flow Network Media Placement Specialist, Michael Feryn opened his new website at <http://www.24hourwebcash.com/feryn9012> and is convinced that "businesses will reset their approach to advertising expenditure and seek a media placement strategy that consistently reaches target audiences". Michael welcomes inquiries on his website or by calling 1-800-719-8268 extension 35954. When joining the Global Cash Flow Network team, clients benefit from a proven business template, training system, experienced support and mentorship that will transform internet-based businesses including their own home-based business. CMPS effectively helps clients target their demographic audience with media placement strategies.

You will have a better chance at finding success by giving people what they want and need in the area of your own passionate interest, says Mary Gersten.
