

Mary Gersten and Global Cash Flow Network Transform the Home Business Community with The Certified Media Placement Specialist Program

Mary Gersten, Vice President of Global Cash Flow Network, transforms the home business industry by training home business entrepreneurs how to build success with online training, support and business tools.

Miles, Australia (PRWEB) August 12, 2009 -- Mary Gersten and Global Cash Flow Network have created a unique and exciting possibility on the Internet. Mary herself comes from a surprising background, and it's those experiences that helped to shape the Certified Media Placement Specialist program.

Global Cash Flow Network provides the Certified Media Placement Specialist as a resource to show people how to build success by placing media in dozens of targeted areas all over the world. A student is taught the art and science of placing media and given dozens of case studies, examples and pre-written templates to model from. The Certified Media Placement Specialist concept is unique.

With this program, a client could earn money by simply placing media and promoting their business, website and unique 1-800 number extension. Unlike what is seen elsewhere, there is no personal selling, no phone calls and no meetings.

Mary Gersten the VP of Operations was instrumental in creating this revolutionary new concept. "The biggest factor why 98% of businesses fail today is because they don't understand the 5 (Real) Keys to Building a Business. The days of get rich quick are over. Today we're finding that clients want a legitimate way to make money from home while doing something they can believe in."
