

Holiday Toy & Stocking Stuffer, Buzz Magnets, Available at Sillyasstoys.com

Inexpensive and mystifying magnetic toy makes the perfect stocking stuffer.

RICHMOND, VA, (PRWEB) November 30, 2005 -- Sillyasstoys.com (<http://www.sillyasstoys.com>) is proud to announce the addition of Buzz Magnets to their online toy store, just in time for the holiday season. Alluring for all ages and reasonably priced at $4.99 (small) and $6.99 (large), Buzz Magnets utilize the basic scientific laws of magnetism to create an unusual toy that's easy and fun for kids to play with.

Every trick performed with these finely polished, oval shaped, hematite magnets produces curious movements and sounds as the magnetic poles strive for equilibrium. Children toss Buzz Magnets into the air and watch them spin, twirl and vibrate, buzzing and chirping as they fall back into the child's hands. Or they can squeeze the magnets together, making them spin as they pass the magnets back and forth from one hand to another. This unique toy delights children while also working on their hand-eye coordination.

"Every five years there's some interesting trinket that kids want to carry in their pockets. Buzz Magnets fit the bill," remarks Dave Luebke, owner of Sillyasstoys.com. "In the tradition of the pet rock or Tamagotchi, Buzz Magnets introduce the scientific elements of magnetism and physics through a toy that's fun to hold, watch and listen to as it buzzes through the air or skids on a durable surface. Most people don't just buy one pack for the kids; they buy one for every member of their family and extended family." The magnets are sold under a variety of names –Rattlesnake Eggs, Pulsing Magnets, UFO Eggs, Stunt Magnets, Hematite Magnets, Buzz Magnets and others –but no matter what you call them, they can be found at Sillyasstoys.com (<http://www.sillyasstoys.com/index.asp?PageAction=VIEWPROD&ProdID=408>).

Available in large and small sizes, Buzz Magnets are the perfect affordable add-on gift that appeals to the child's desire for interactive toys and the parent's desire to fill their child's Christmas stocking without emptying their own wallets.
