Wilmington, DE (Vocus) March 29, 2010 -- The luxury children's beds and custom children's furniture company Sweet Dream Theme Bed and Children's Interiors – <http://www.sweetdreambed.com> - was recently featured on the Style Network's reality show Kimora: Life in the Fab Lane after the company's one-of-a-kind custom children's beds caught the eye of star Kimora Lee Simmons. The highly accomplished model, author, and CEO of Phat Fashions wanted princess rooms and princess castle beds for her two young daughters. She selected the Sweet Dream Bed Versailles Castle Bed for her seven-year-old daughter and the Princess Carlie Bed for her ten-year-old daughter. The Sweet Dream Beds were featured on the March 28 show of the reality series Kimora: Life in the Fab Lane on the Style Network.

“We were delighted to have the opportunity to create custom luxury princess castle beds and princess rooms for Kimora Lee Simmons' daughters,” JoAnn Means, co-founder of Sweet Dream Theme Beds and Children's Interiors. “Kimora requested custom faux paint jobs and lots of hidden storage on the inside of the playhouse and beds. We tell parents and children, ‘If you dream it we can create it.’ Our high-end luxury custom children's furniture is for both boys and girls – and you are only limited by your imagination.”
