

Ray Roberts Named U.S. Foodservice-Detroit Division President

Former Detroit Lions player promoted to president at Metro-Detroit Division

Detroit (Vocus) June 8, 2010 -- U.S. Foodservice today announced that Ray Roberts has been promoted to division president of U.S. Foodservice-Detroit. He is responsible for sales, marketing, operations and finance for the Detroit metro area. Roberts was previously senior vice president and general manager for the company's Detroit division.

“Ray’s experience and leadership make him the perfect choice to lead the Detroit division,” said Stuart Schuette, chief operating officer, U.S. Foodservice. “Ray will undoubtedly energize the Detroit division, grow the business and enhance service to customers.”

Prior to joining U.S. Foodservice, Roberts was a business manager for the Exterior System Business Roofing Division of Owens Corning, where he was responsible for the eastern United States, Latin America and Europe. He also held leadership positions with Generals Mills, and S.C. Johnson.

From 1994 to 1995, Roberts played tight end and various special teams positions for the NFL’s Chicago Bears and Detroit Lions. He holds a master’s degree in business administration from the University of Notre Dame’s Mendoza College of Business and a bachelor’s degree in manufacturing engineering technology from Northern Illinois University.
