

Global Cash Flow Network (GCFN) Creates Revolutionary Work at Home CMPS (Certified Media Placement Specialist) Program and Raises Money for The Boys and Girls Club

Global Cash Flow Network (Global CFN) announces the prelaunch to create Certified Media Placement Specialists (CMPS) and time tested proven training, coaching and support in the home business industry.

Tempe, AZ (PRWEB) October 10, 2006 -- Global Cash Flow Network announced the pre-launch of its new Certified Media Placement Specialist (CMPS) Program that trains prospective home business and work at home entrepreneurs with online training, courses and coaching services geared to break through and show these entrepreneurs how to build success.

Mary Gersten the VP of Operations was instrumental in creating this revolutionary new concept. "The biggest factor why 98% of businesses fail today is because they don't understand the 5 (Real) Keys to Building a Business. The days of get rich quick are over. Today we're finding that clients want a legitimate way to make money from home while doing something they can believe in.

We're committed to provide a broad spectrum of support and educational products for all types of people in the home business and work at home industry- everything from our free tips (<http://www.24hourwebcash.com>) and online course to those who want a business working to become a Certified Media Placement Specialist.

Once a person learns the keys, there's no limit to what they can achieve.

And, in a commitment to walk our talk, we contribute a percentage of the sales we generate to different causes and organizations. I'm proud to say that this past month we donated over $2,500.00 to the Boys and Girls Clubs of America.

We're expanding our pre-launch with the new CMPS program and our goal is to donate $10,000 by December. We also expect to contribute to other great causes like the Boys and Girls Club and Habitat for Humanity.

It's great creating a winning environment where we know that everything we do helps our clients live their dreams and also impacts great causes too."

With Global Cash Flow Network's unique system, a client simply places media and promotes their business, website and unique 1-800 number and extension. There is no selling. No phone calls. No talking to friends and family. No meetings.

"Not to mention that last month we were ranked by one of the Internet's premier Scam Busters - dont-get-scammed-again.com and the editor and reviewer gave us the highest review of any home business program (out of the 300 they have scoured, researched and dissected). It's an incredible honor and a testament that we believe our new CMPS program offers all types of people the opportunity to build a business they will love.

Everyday I get to help people get closer to their dreams, start their own business, and part of the money we create goes to good causes and organizations that provide real value. It's a dream come true."

Along with the free online course and now an expose from dont-get-scammed-again.com, we are encouraging others to apply for our Certified Media Placement Program by offering turn-key tools and ongoing support with our media coaches.

The free expose and course is available at <http://www.24hourwebcash.com>
