

Casino Classic Launches Casino Sites in a Range of Languages

In another move to solidify their already impressive world wide presence, Casino Classic have now launched their casinos in a range of languages to accommodate the needs of their extensive world wide player base.

Tortola, Virgin Islands (PRWEB) March 17, 2007 -- In another move to solidify their already impressive world wide presence, Casino Classic have now launched their casinos in a range of languages to accommodate the needs of their extensive world wide player base.

Casino Classic are supported by the leading software provider Microgaming, and their rapidly expanding game portfolio now exceeds over 200 traditional and new games which include table games, slots, progressive jackpots and video poker.

The software is now supported in French, Italian, German and Japanese with more languages to follow in the near future. Casino Classic are also expanding on their multi lingual support centre, already offering Japanese, French and German email support. This is another aggressive move from the well established and trusted online casino as part of their commitment to offering the international market the best possible online gaming experience.

Casino Classic are part of CasinoRewards, the online casino group. This recent development follows on from the CasinoRewards acquisition of the Aztec and Phoenician Casino and Poker Brands last year and the Captain Cooks brands in 2005 bringing the total partner casinos and poker rooms to seventeen. Their constant growth is testament to their reliability in the fickle online casino industry.

Casino Classic have a highly competitive casino bonus offering players a large incentive of $500 and 1 hour to make as much money as they can on the casino games. Casino Classic have also been highly commended on their excellent customer service with feedback such as "Your staff are excellent, considerate and efficient" a regular occurrence at the casino.

With such an excellent casino bonuses and advanced new games, Casino Classic is certainly the place to go for the most discerning online casino player.

For more online casino news and information on Casino Classic and their new multi lingual services please visit Casino Classic.

###

Contact Information

Emma Hall

Casino Classic

<http://www.casinoclassic.com>

+61 283055103

Online Web 2.0 Version

You can read the online version of this press release here.