Novato, CA (PRWEB) October 11, 2007 -- Alex Mandossian, one of the top Internet direct marketers in America, has just released a new article on his web site. The article, "Ask and You Shall Receive: How to Use Your Market to Take Your Teleseminar Training to the Next Level for Big Bucks" is available for immediate download at www.AlexMandossian.com.

In this article Mandossian reveals three steps to capture more profits, faster, better and with less human effort, even if you're on a bootstrapped marketing budget.

"If you are tired of playing 'pin-the-tail-on-the-donkey' with your marketing dollars and are looking for a system that eliminates guesswork, you need to embrace the 'just ask' philosophy of Teleseminar marketing," explains Mandossian. "By asking your market what they want, you can tailor your information to them, and then ask them to pay for it."

Mandossian explains how to ask markets what they want and then use that information in a sales letter or selling strategy and also addresses repurposing Teleseminar content as an additional moneymaking strategy.

Future articles about Teleseminars address tips for entrepreneurs, small business owners and other to harness the power of Teleseminars, including:

- How to make more an hour than elite professional athletes or Fortune 500 CEOs
- The beauty of Teleseminars and the "one-on-many" approach to sales and marketing intimacy.
- How Teleseminars can increase your conversion rates (turn prospects into buyers)
- Why Teleseminars are so profitable - and what you can do to make the most money with the least amount of time.
- How to repurpose Teleseminars to increase profits
- How one business person made almost $15,000 in one hour (and how you can do it too).
