

Relational Expert and Minister Celebrated by Playboy Radio - What Every Nympho Needs!

Relational Expert and Minister Paul F. Davis was embraced by Playboy Radio's Afternoon Advice host Tiffany Grannath and several callers who enjoyed speaking to the author of Breakthrough for a Broken Heart and Adultery: 101 Reasons Not to Cheat. Davis answered questions from callers who had been cheated on themselves and were seeking wisdom as to what to do in their relationship.

Orlando, FL (PRWEB) November 7, 2007 -- Relational Expert and Love Coach Paul F. Davis was interviewed by Playboy Radio's Tiffany Grannath about cheating, adultery, sexual sobriety, cultivating true love, and sustaining a love that lasts a lifetime.

Davis is the author of Are You Ready For True Love, which assesses relational compatibility & responsibility. "Discern between relational fits, misfits, and counterfeits. If a man tells a woman she's beautiful, she will overlook most of his other lies. Courtship is that period during which the female decides whether or not she can do any better. Don't get into the sea of matrimony on a wave of enthusiasm. Learn a lot before tying the knot. Beyond love at first sight, get insight."

Paul himself lived through an adulterous affair in which he went through a personal ground zero (like where he worked in NYC the first week of 9/11), after which he wrote his book Breakthrough for a Broken Heart to empower people to overcome their disappointments and blossom into their dreams.

Davis a worldwide professional speaker has traveled to over 50 countries and 6 continents across the globe comforting and uplifting humanity. Paul's message of hope transcends barriers that divide and builds bridges among all peoples. Paul's organization Dream-Maker Ministries builds dreams, humorously challenges presumptions, transcends limitations, and facilitates transformation.

As a purpose coach Davis transforms individuals and organizations. Relationally speaking, the divorce Davis went through due to adultery, enabled him to pull from the mess a mighty message to liberate humanity. Paul's book Adultery: 101 Reasons Not to Cheat he originally wrote for himself as a traveling man to keep the fear of God in his own heart and remind himself of the repercussions of wrong doing. Little did Paul know he'd be the victim of an adulterous affair himself when his ex-wife dropped the bomb on him.

Paul wrote a sequel to the Adultery 101 book titled Stop Lusting & Start Living, a sexual recovery plan which he says every nympho needs. Overcoming and harnessing fleshly bodily appetites that seek to rule and enslave us requires spiritual strength. Only as you build up the spirit within can you govern your bodily appetites and reign over unruly fleshly cravings screaming for immediate gratification.

Desperate housewives, strippers, playboys, womanizers, and the hormonally challenged driven by lust are restlessly looking for something and someone to satisfy them. Society is seeking answers to tame their gremlins and advice to achieve self-mastery. Will our consumeristic society ever again be content and committed relationally?

Faith, hope, and love alone anchor the heart and soul. Cheating thwarts the family structure and demoralizes precious children who look to Mommy and Daddy for moral guidance and direction. What then will divorced men and women give to their children? Hopelessness, depression, loneliness, lies, deceit, anger, fear, distrust, unfaithfulness, and betrayal? Are these values we want to teach our children? If not, somehow we must be strengthened to overcome seduction's temptation.

How shall men keep the womanizer from stealing their wife? Stop betrayal and infidelity early on by harnessing your flesh before the hottie walks by. Get some self-help and purpose in your heart to uphold and fight for your marriage.

Though our bodies want food, sleep, and sex -- giving yourself over fully without restraint to your bodily appetites will both destroy your soul and your marriage. The flesh doesn't care about a wedding ring or marital vows. Therefore we must take dominion over ourselves and make our flesh obey.

Indeed sex is wonderful and a gift from God, but to be a blessing it must be kept within its proper context and not overly exalted. Sex is not love, neither can it satisfy a yearning soul. The flesh is but one of three facets of our person and has the least depth of the three. We are spiritual beings who have a mind and live in a body, says Paul. Therefore to overcome the outward man, we must first build up the inner man by the spirit.

The supernatural flow and miraculous dimension to Paul's ministry and messages impart an unusual strength to hearts and minds, fortifying people to live victoriously spirit, mind, and body!
