Rare “Gone with the Wind” Collection Now on Display at Circa Savannah

Circa Savannah, the city’s premier Historic Gallery and Tour Provider acquires an important collection of Gone with the Wind letters and memorabilia and is now on display and available for purchase to interested parties.

Savannah, GA (PRWEB) November 30, 2011 -- Among the collection are letters signed by “Margaret Mitchell Marsh” discussing the book in 1941, Selznick International Pictures discussing the auditions in 1936, Olivia deHavilland signed letters, and many other signed photos and memorabilia items.

“Tourists love to spend time in our gallery reading the history of our collection while they are waiting for one of our famous tours, and the “Gone With The Wind” addition is no exception,” said owner Michael Preston. “In a historic city like Savannah, visitors love to see something special, and Circa Savannah strives to exceed their expectations in every way,” stated Mr. Preston.

The original Mitchell letter is typed on Margaret Mitchell letter head and is dated June 3, 1941. It reads in part: “I have just received from my Bulgarian publisher copies of Gone with the Wind published in your language.” It is signed cordially as “Margaret Mitchell Marsh”. On Selznick International Pictures letter head dated November 25, 1936, it reads in part: “I am attaching herewith a break-down of the characters on Gone with the Wind. I am hopeful that George Cukor will have one full week of auditions around December 15th…” “Circa Savannah also provides a lifetime guarantee along with the Certificate of Authenticity for all of its Gone with the Wind documents,” stated Mr. Preston.

“Our customers already love our “Gone with the Wind” collection and often suggest that Circa Savannah should become a museum,” shared Mr. Preston. Whether the customer is looking a rare historical items or a specialty tour, Circa Savannah has them all. To inquire more about the Circa Savannah, call them directly at (912) 233-3667, or visiting them online at www.CircaSavannah.com.

###
Contact Information
Michael Preston
C Savannah
http://CSavannah.com
912-233-3667

Online Web 2.0 Version
You can read the online version of this press release here.