New Oral Anticoagulants Markets

Rockville, MD | 6/26/2013 | PRWeb – MarketResearch.com announces the addition of a new market research report in Pharmaceuticals to their product offering: New Oral Anticoagulants Markets

(PRWEB) June 26, 2013 -- New Oral Anticoagulants Markets

TriMarkPublications.com cites in its newly published “New Oral Anticoagulants Markets” report that the global anticoagulants market will spike to over $24 billion by 2019. Anticoagulants decrease the ability of the blood to create harmful blood clots that can ultimately lead to a heart attack or stroke. Although sometimes referred to as blood thinners, they do not actually thin the blood and only help prevent the formation of new blood clots.

Anticoagulants can be categorized into five main modalities: low molecular weight heparins (LMWHs), herapins, warfarin, direct thrombin inhibitors (DTIs) and factor Xa inhibitors. For more than 50 years and until recently, the only oral anticoagulants were vitamin K antagonists such as warfarin. Pradaxa (dabigatran), Xarelto (rivaroxaban), Eliquis (apixaban) and other new oral anticoagulants have several advantages over warfarin, including no periodical laboratory monitoring and more predictable effects with fixed doses.

The U.S. anticoagulants market, which encompasses over 60% of the global market for anticoagulants, will grow from $7.06 billion in 2012 to $15.32 billion in 2019 as it shifts from being monopolized by a single injectable anticoagulant, warfarin, to once-daily oral anticoagulants.

"New Oral Anticoagulants Markets” provides a thorough overview of these and other new oral anticoagulants, their approved indications, drug profiles, pharmacokinetic parameters and the respective areas of market growth.

The report also examines companies manufacturing anticoagulant equipment and supplies in the world. Companies covered include: Akers, Anthera, ARYx, AstraZeneca, Boehringer Ingelheim, Cipla, Daiichi Sankyo, Eisai, Eli Lilly, Genentech, GlaxoSmithKline, Medicines Company, Medicure, Merek, Novartis, Ortho-McNeil, Pfizer, Pharmion, Portola and Sanofi. Detailed charts with sales forecasts and marketshare data are included.
