Bactrim Cannot Cure Prostate Problem While Herbal Medicine Cures Non-Bacterial Prostatitis Naturally, Highlights Wuhan Dr.Li's TCM Clinic

Chinese herbal medicine receives worldwide attention for its power to treat chronic prostate problems, especially non-bacterial prostatitis which is difficult to get cured with antibiotics. Dr. Li Xiaoping's herbal medicine Diuretic and Anti-inflammatory Pill is able to relieve the pain and cure prostatitis naturally, highlights Wuhan Dr. Li's TCM Clinic.

(PRWEB) June 30, 2013 -- The most common prostatitis treatment method nowadays is based on antibiotics, all of which regrettably can't cure the problem and cause adverse side effects, such as nausea, vomit, affect the liver, kidney and hematopoietic function. On the contrary, Dr. Li Xiaoping's herbal medicine "Diuretic and Anti-inflammatory Pill" provides effective relief and cure without side effects, reveals Wuhan Dr. Li's TCM Clinic.

Wuhan Dr.Li's TCM Clinic is pleased to share one of many positive customer comments, a testimonial from Andrew P, from USA: "I have a prostate problem. The doctors did no find any bacterium, but when I was prescribed BACTRIM (trimetopina and sulfametozaxol ) I felt better. I suffer the disease for 20 year. Every time it become worst I took your pills and get cured for almost 4 months."

"I took your pills the 3 months. It cured me step by step. It also cured another side effects of the disease like legs pain and abdominal pain (it was like in the bladder) I know that some people with prostate problem have that pain, but I have only the last year. The prostate was swollen and I have a lot of pain. The doctors only checked every six months but did not find the problem."

"I think I took more than 1000 tablets of bactrim in the last 20 years, but it helps only while I'm taking them. For that reason i looked for alternative medicine and found your pills. I was pleasantly surprised that chronic prostatitis get cured. Doctor, why the pills that are so good for me? "

Dr.Li Xiaoping explains, "I apply many herbs into the pills to eliminate inflammation, clear heat, eliminate toxins and promote circulation of blood and Qi etc. The herbs not only work to antibacteria, but also regulate male urogenital system function to make all functions go normal. That's the advantage of the herbal medicine to treat prostatitis."

According to Wuhan Dr. Li's TCM Clinic, more and more patients from other countries choose to take Chinese herbal medication to cure prostatitis. Diuretic and Anti-inflammatory Pill is entering the world market with its unique power to treat chronic prostatitis. With the new natural medication, the recovery from prostate problem become extremely easy.
