Dallas Rhinoplasty: Nasal Surgery by the Masters 3rd Edition Now Available

Edited by some of the best rhinoplasty surgeons in the world and pioneers in the field of nasal surgery, Dallas plastic surgeon Rod J. Rohrich is pleased to announce that Dallas Rhinoplasty: Nasal Surgery by the Masters is now in its third edition.

Dallas, Texas (PRWEB) April 02, 2014 -- The newly revised, third edition of the renowned reference guide "Dallas Rhinoplasty: Nasal Surgery by the Masters" is now available.

Edited by Dr. Rod J. Rohrich, Dr. William P. Adams, Jr., Dr. Jamil Ahmad, and Dr. Jack P. Gunter, the new edition is a compilation from the annual Dallas Rhinoplasty Symposium, the largest educational conference in the world that focuses exclusively on both primary and secondary rhinoplasty.

Written for plastic surgeons and otolaryngologists who wish to refine and enhance their surgical approach, the third edition covers everything from basic fundamentals of nasal anatomy to the very latest refinements and advances in both primary and secondary or revision rhinoplasty. The new edition features 24 new chapters, comprehensive case analyses, and includes four DVDs with video demonstrations of operative procedures.

"This edition of 'Dallas Rhinoplasty: Nasal Surgery by the Masters' is the new rhinoplasty bible that has been used to teach over 6000 plastic surgeons and ENTs worldwide," says renowned rhinoplasty surgeon and lead editor, Dr. Rod Rohrich. "This book advocates the open approach which has helped transform the art of rhinoplasty surgery into a refined procedure with more predictable and consistent results."

The Dallas Rhinoplasty Symposium is an annual educational meeting for rhinoplasty surgeons that covers a wide range of special topics from how to analyze the nose and plan a primary rhinoplasty to the fundamentals of successful secondary or corrective rhinoplasty surgery. This completely updated edition focuses on the latest refinements in surgical techniques to ensure safe and reproducible results. "Dallas Rhinoplasty: Nasal Surgery by the Masters" is a compilation of the best techniques, insights, and lessons from the Symposium over the years by many of the top rhinoplasty surgeons in the world.

"Rhinoplasty is a surgery of millimeters. It truly epitomizes plastic surgery as a whole because it is a surgery of such great finesse and takes years to master," says Dr. Rohrich. "It is one of the most difficult procedures in all of plastic surgery, but also one of the most rewarding."

The third edition is now available on Amazon.com and on the publisher's website crcpress.com.

About Rod J. Rohrich, MD

Dr. Rod J. Rohrich holds the Betty and Warren Woodward Chair in Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery at UT Southwestern Medical Center. He also holds the UT Southwestern Medical Center Crystal Charity Ball Distinguished Chair in Plastic Surgery. Dr. Rohrich graduated from Baylor College of Medicine with high honors, and completed a plastic surgery residency at the University of Michigan Medical Center and fellowships at Massachusetts General Hospital/Harvard (hand/microsurgery) and Oxford University (pediatric plastic surgery). He has served as president of the American Society of Plastic Surgeons, the largest organization of board certified plastic surgeons in the world. He repeatedly has been selected by his peers as one of America's best doctors, and twice has received one of his profession's highest honors, the Plastic Surgery...
Educational Foundation Distinguished Service Award, which recognizes his contributions to education in plastic surgery. He is the co-author of a new consumer book called Navigate Your Beauty –Smart and Safe Plastic Surgery Solutions which focuses on how to find the best plastic surgeon to get excellent results and with the safest outcomes. Dr. Rohrich participates in and has led numerous associations and councils for the advancement of plastic and reconstructive surgery. He is a native of North Dakota and is married to Dr. Diane Gibby, also a plastic surgeon. They live in Dallas with their two children.
Contact Information
Rod J. Rohrich M.D.
http://drrohrich.com
+1 (214) 645-3119

Online Web 2.0 Version
You can read the online version of this press release here.