LAKE MARY, Fla. (PRWEB) February 09, 2018 -- “A Sailor's Cross: Letters to my Children”: an engrossing collection of verses that reflect human feelings and perspectives. “A Sailor's Cross: Letters to my Children” is the creation of published author, Rene Baptiste, a Christian husband, father, and a Veteran.

Baptiste shares, “My weakness is in the misinterpretation of my thoughts. In my own thoughts I lack knowledge. In my search for knowledge I lack wisdom. Without wisdom I have become deaf to Greatness. What was once a weakness of mine has been made the strength of others.”

Published by Christian Faith Publishing, Rene Baptiste’s new book reflects a life filled with smiles and frowns, joy and sadness, highs and lows, as well as other more profound moments such as difficult decisions and addiction.

The goal of this book is to show that life is nowhere near perfection, and that every action has a corresponding consequence. Life is balanced, with dark and bright moments that influences any individual’s viewpoint about living.
