Ophthalmic Consultants of Long Island Broadens Its Patient Service Footprint by Partnering with Eye Care Associates/Glaucoma Consultants of Long Island

Ophthalmic Consultants of Long Island (OCLI), a Spectrum Vision Partners managed practice, announced today that it has entered into a partnership with the well-respected ophthalmology practice Eye Care Associates/Glaucoma Consultants of Long Island (ECA/GCLI), with locations in Bethpage and Lake Success.

WESTBURY, N.Y. (PRWEB) May 17, 2018 -- Ophthalmic Consultants of Long Island (OCLI), a Spectrum Vision Partners managed practice, announced today that it has entered into a partnership with the well-respected ophthalmology practice Eye Care Associates/Glaucoma Consultants of Long Island (ECA/GCLI), with locations in Bethpage and Lake Success.

Founded in 1987 and headquartered in Bethpage, New York, Eye Care Associates/Glaucoma Consultants of Long Island has a track record of eye care clinical excellence with known expertise in the diagnosis and treatment of glaucoma. The practice is composed of seven highly-trained ophthalmologists who share a passion for providing patients with the highest quality eye care with respect and kindness.

Robert Rothman, MD of ECA/GCLI, said, “The partnership with OCLI is a natural fit with and a key milestone for our practice. We share the same vision for world-class ophthalmic patient care for Long Islanders.”

Tom Burke, CEO of Spectrum Vision Partners, commented, “Spectrum Vision Partners is thrilled to further strengthen the OCLI practice hub with the addition of the ECA/GCLI ophthalmology team of Dr.’s Arnold Prywes, Joseph Weinstein, Craig Marcus, Robert Rothman, Allison Angelilli, Daniel Hayes, and Robert Auerbach. We will continue to expand our patient service locations on Long Island in collaboration with eye doctors and surgeons who are like-minded and provide clinical excellence with a passion for delivering exceptional patient care.”

As part of the transaction, all of ECA/GCLI’s physicians will maintain their current roles with the practice.
