LOS ANGELES, Dec. 20, 2018 /PRNewswire-iReach/ -- Over the course of his 10-year career Samson T has consistently released music that reflects the impact his musical influences, Boyz 2 Men, Michael Jackson, Stevie Wonder, and Usher left on him. His latest release, a music video for the single "Celebration" off his album "That Real RnB" puts his modern take on 90's R&B on display.

"Celebration," the last track on the album, lives up to its title. With an upbeat, the single conveys the positive attitude that has driven Samson T to success in his career without sacrificing his artistic vision. Poetic visuals illustrate the themes, bringing the track to life.

"That Real RnB" is a long time in the making, the 13 tracks that comprise the album are a reflection of both the past and future of Samson T's career. He collaborated very closely with Citto Kain to bring his modern-day take on 90's R&B. He's created a soulful, deep, mature sound as he has developed as an artist, proving his message of patience, determination, and hard work.

Praise for Samson T:

JRDN- "Samson T is the King of West coast R&B."
