Ashley D Lake’s newly released “If I Were a Unicorn, I Would Be One of A Kind” is a wondrous read on the uniqueness of each and every single creation of God

“If I Were a Unicorn, I Would Be One of A Kind” from Christian Faith Publishing author Ashley D Lake is a simple and wonderful narrative that tells of God’s amazing power of creation and making each one special in their own way.

MEADVILLE, Pa. (PRWEB) February 04, 2020 -- “If I Were a Unicorn, I Would Be One of A Kind”: a delightful tale of beauty and uniqueness woven into a narrative filled with charming and equally special creatures. “If I Were a Unicorn, I Would Be One of A Kind” is the creation of published author Ashley D Lake, a stay-at-home wife and a mother of three. She enjoys reading, the outdoors, gardening, shopping, and doing her utmost best to serve the Lord.

Lake shares, “If I Were a Unicorn I Would Be One of a Kind gives its readers an inside look into God’s view on each person as an individual. There are monkeys, lions, chickens galore, but unicorns are unique, special, one-of-a-kind creatures—just as you and I are one of a kind to our amazing Heavenly Father. No one else has fingers, toes, or a nose just like you! He created each one of us special and unique in His eyes. In a world where material image is so important to many, this work expresses the uniqueness of each person in the eyes of God, just the way He created them.”

Published by Christian Faith Publishing, Ashley D Lake’s new book is a colorful illustration that stresses to young readers that God’s magnificence paved the way for everyone to be unique and beautifully different.
