Enlightening New Book ‘The Beauty of the Lord: His Church in the Last Days’ Presents a Beacon of Light in Today’s Darkening World

Author Patrick Brady encourages readers to renew their relationship with God as it is those who know Jesus intimately who will stand and witness His power, love and truth in the deepening darkness of the world today.

KINGSTON, Wash. (PRWEB) February 03, 2020 -- Author Patrick Brady was not always a man of faith: After serving in the U.S. Army, he became a full-blown alcoholic and lost his sense of purpose, and self-respect. After encounters with the Lord Jesus, followed by years of struggle, culminating in a victorious deliverance, he shares what the Holy Spirit taught him in a bittersweet journey to the Tabernacle of the Lord. This is what ultimately led to the release of his spiritual memoir, “The Beauty of the Lord: His Church in the Last Days.”

Combining his testimony with a view of the ever growing departure of the church from the love and righteousness of Christ, Brady shares the vital role God plays in our lives and how staying faithful will lead His children to work together in fulfilling God’s purposes and intentions in these difficult and increasingly dangerous times.

Brady uses Scripture to guide readers toward a deeper understanding of the tremendous love and purpose that God has for His Church. By taking an unparalleled look at God’s presence in our world and warning readers about the upcoming end to the Church Age, Brady’s powerful messaging calls for an urgent return to our Lord Jesus Christ and the love and power of God, which He desires to share with His children.

“I believe our position of spiritual strength is in His love, but we must cooperate with the Holy Spirit and walk in Him,” Brady asserts. “God wants us to walk in love because we were born again in His image—I didn’t believe this either until I witnessed what He did for me in my own life. I hope that sharing my story of healing demonstrates how His mercy and compassion truly changes lives.”

Identifying God’s place in our lives and the world to come, “The Beauty of the Lord” points to a path for readers to develop a stronger faith and greater love for the Lord Jesus.

“The Beauty of the Lord: His Church in the Last Days”
By Patrick Brady
ISBN: 9781973677284 (softcover); 9781973677291 (hardcover); 9781973677277 (electronic)
Available at the Westbow Press Online Bookstore, Amazon and Barnes & Noble

About the author
Patrick Brady has been an active member of the church since the 1980s. Educated at Oregon State University and the University of Washington, he presently ministers and provides Intercessory Prayer, End-time Church, and Tabernacle workshops to the Life in the Spirit & Keys of the Kingdom Ministries in the Philippines, North America and Europe. He also ministers to the Frankfurt and Wiesbaden fellowships of the Italian Pentecostal Church in Germany. This is his first publication. To learn more, please visit his website, www.lpbrady1.com.

Contact for book review and interview requests
LAVIDGE – Phoenix
Courtney Vasquez
480-306-7065
cvasquez(at)lavidge(dot)com
Contact Information
Courtney Vasquez
LAVIDGE
480-306-7065

Online Web 2.0 Version
You can read the online version of this press release here.